Olaf Wieghorst Museum & Western Heritage Center

The Wieghorst Museum preserves the work of Olaf Wieghorst, a great Danish-American twentieth century painter, and celebrates the heritage of the American West through his art. The Wieghorst Museum is an anchor institution in East County San Diego's El Cajon Art and Entertainment District. The museum includes the artist's gallery, exhibition space, the artist's historic home and studio (a local historic landmark building) and a manicured southwest cactus/succulent garden.

Date: Tuesday, January 21
 Time: Meet at Museum by 10:00am
 End Time: Approx. 12:00pm
 Fee: FREE!
 Location: 131 Rea Ave, El Cajon, CA 92020

Join us for a fun Painting Workshop where we will be instructed to create a piece of art from start to finish. San Diego artist LeoAngelo will teach us how to paint in an engaging, social and relaxing atmosphere. No prior experience is needed, but if you do have some art know-how that is great. We will be using acrylic paint and there will be 2 hours of art instruction. In the end you will get to keep your artwork on a 16x20 canvas.
 *All materials included
