Trolley Trip—San Diego Padres Game

For our Spring Trolley trip we can sing, “Take me out to the ballgame”, as we travel to San Diego’s Petco Park to enjoy the day watching our San Diego Padres take on the Chicago Cubs. Petco Park, ranked #1 ballpark in America for 2 years in a row, will not be a disappointment with its electric atmosphere, vast selection of delicious food and of course a thrilling baseball game. See you there!

Bus Trip—La Brea Tar Pits Museum

The La Brea Tar Pits in Los Angeles offer a fascinating glimpse into prehistoric life. This iconic site is home to natural asphalt pits that have preserved the remains of Ice Age animals for over 50,000 years. We will explore the outdoor bubbling tar pits, watch paleontologists in action at the Fossil Lab and marvel at the skeletons of mammoths, saber-toothed cats and dire wolves. After watching the 3-D film “Titans of the Ice Age” you will be free to enjoy lunch at one of the near by eateries or explore your way around the Museum. An Excavator Tour will be available for those who wish to join at no extra cost. Step into your next Ice Age adventure!
